1. On 10 November 1950, the restricted area bordered by Koepenicker Allee, Waldow Allee, Treskow Allee, Marksburger Strasse, and Reinstein Strasse were exclusively occupied by Soviets. To date, no agency of the Volkspolizei is located in this area. This was confirmed [REDACTED] To date about 30 percent of the former occupants of the restricted area have been evacuated. Various buildings are now empty. [REDACTED] about 75 percent of the soldiers and dependents withdrawn were shipped back to the U.S.S.R. The restricted area is to be gradually derequisitioned. However, there are no indications to the effect that Volkspolizei personnel are to be stationed in this area.

2. Except for the building occupied by the Soviet Military Administration and a school, the left-hand side of Treskow Allee as seen from the Karlshorst railroad station is evacuated. The evacuated buildings had been occupied by officers and military agencies. On the right-hand side of the street only a few buildings have been evacuated. This evacuation has been under way for some months. [REDACTED] Soviet agencies were transferred from the restricted area to Ruedersdorf-Kalkberge. The area was guarded by Volkspolizei. *

* [REDACTED] Comment. [REDACTED] attempted to check a previous report by [REDACTED] the restricted area of Karlshorst was allegedly vacated by the Soviets and reoccupied by Volkspolizei. See [REDACTED] The present report makes it reasonably certain that some of the SCC agencies previously located in the restricted area have either been deactivated and their personnel returned to the U.S.S.R., or transferred to Rudersdorf-Kalkberge. However, there were no indications of an intended occupation of the restricted area by Volkspolizei or of a transfer of the SOG agencies to the Halle-Leipzig area. A transfer of agencies from Karlshorst to Rudersdorf-Kalkberge appears possible. The completion of a system of bunkers at Rudersdorf-Kalkberge was reported in September 1949. [REDACTED]
